

David Inch, PGA Teaching Professional

David was born and raised in Ottawa. He graduated from Algonquin College's three-year business program with a diploma in marketing.

David has been a proud member of the PGA of Canada since 1981. He served as Pro - Manager at the Rideau Glen Golf Club in Kemptville for ten years, then relocated to Nova Scotia where served as Head Professional at the Avon Valley Golf Club in Falmouth, Nova Scotia until 1997. He then spent fifteen summers teaching golf in Kanata at the Kevin Haime Golf Centre prior to recently relocating to Brockville.

A respected teacher, his quiet encouraging manner has helped over 7,000 students improve their game. David has been teaching golf for over 25 years, combining patience and a sense of humour with a passion for helping students appreciate and enjoy the game.

Doug Wark, PGA Teaching Professional

Doug has been a member of the PGA of Canada since 1999. Doug has 18 years of teaching experience teaching at various golf courses, teaching academies and resorts across the country. Doug is a certified Golf Coach under the Henry Brunton and Rick Jenson Coaching Program. Doug enjoys coaching and teaching golfers of all abilities the skills to play better golf. Whether you're taking up golf for the first time, trying to break par, fix your slice or just make more putts; Doug has a program for you.

As a graduate of Brock University with honours in Physical Education and Humber College's Professional Golf Management Program, Doug has extensive training and experience in Coaching, Teaching and Sport Psychology. Doug has developed an "eye for the swing" and with the aid of video analysis can quickly detect your errors and communicate the proper swing changes to get you back on track. His "keep it simple" approach to teaching and learning coupled with his enjoyable teaching style will keep you motivated to improve, learn and have fun!
